

"Jennifer lays down a path of hope for others who face the unthinkable."
~ Philip Yancey

"Jennifer reminds us that finding the answers is not nearly as important as finding The Answer."
~ Joni Eareckson Tada

"Jennifer Sands didn't set out to be a treasure hunter. But through the tragedies of life, God brought treasure to her. With clarity, humor and honesty she describes the path to treasured faith and comes to the conclusion that 'the most valuable riches are found in the pages of the Bible.'"
~ Dr. Woodrow Kroll, President
Back to the Bible International

"Jennifer has shared with us her exciting journey of growing in Christ. May the lessons she has taken to heart reach our hearts as well."
~ Bestselling author Janette Oke

"If Jennifer dares to suggest that God has a purpose for what happened in her life, then we should listen. If she can find hope in her circumstances, then we can find hope in ours."
~ Steve Saint
Author of End of the Spear
Son of Missionary Nate Saint

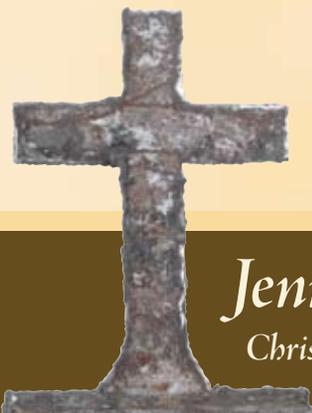

"Encourages all readers to believe that God has a purpose for them and that He is walking with them even through life's trials."
~ Christian Retailing Magazine

Jennifer's Journey...

Jennifer's first book, A Tempered Faith, candidly details her emotional and spiritual struggle after losing her husband in the 9/11 terrorist attacks. Her second book, A Teachable Faith, passes on the lessons and biblical truths that God taught her through everyday life experiences. In A Treasured Faith, which completes the "ATF Trilogy," Jennifer illustrates her continuing biblical growth and shares her battle with breast cancer. Each book has been cleverly written as a stand-alone book. So wherever you are in your own faith journey, there is an "ATF" book that will speak to your heart, encourage you in your trials, and challenge you to grow in the grace and knowledge of God and His Word.

September 11 Widow Jennifer Sands has gained a reputation as one of today's most dynamic Christian authors and speakers.

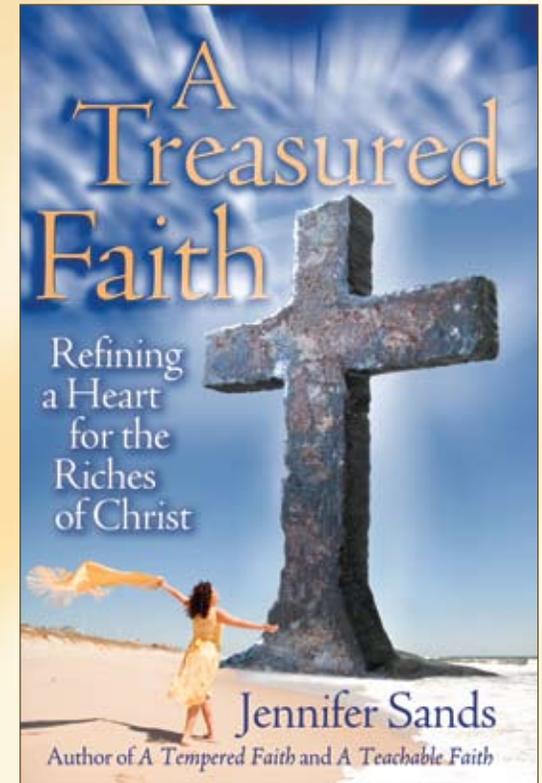

If you've ever been through the pain of adversity and found yourself thinking, this can't be happening..., then Jennifer has encouragement for you. If you've ever searched for answers to life's biggest questions, then Jennifer has wisdom to share with you. If you've ever desired the most valuable riches, then Jennifer has a treasure to offer you.

After Jennifer lost her husband on 9/11, God rescued her from hopelessness and gave her a new life in Christ — along with a powerful writing and speaking ministry. Since then, Jennifer has learned to look for God's goodness even in the darkest days. Her latest book, A Treasured Faith, challenges us to discover the wealth when we dig deeply into the Bible and into our souls. It inspires us to take our own relationship with the Lord to a deeper level, and it reminds us that we can all possess a treasured faith ... for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Every audience can identify with Jennifer's powerful, universal message of overcoming trials in their lives through faith and trust in God.
